HYMN NUMBERS

175 Come down, O love divine
174 Breathe on me, breath of God
383 Be still, for the presence of the Lord
179 Come, Holy Spirit, come!

COLLECT for Day of Pentecost

Holy Spirit, sent by the Father, ignite in us your holy fire; strengthen your children with the gift of faith, revive your Church with the breath of love, and renew the face of the earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Isaiah 2:1-4

1 This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem: 2 In the last days the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as the highest of the mountains; it will be exalted above the hills, and all nations will stream to it. 3 Many peoples will come and say, 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the temple of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths.' The law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. 4 He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples. They will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any more.

Matthew 28:16-20

16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. 17 When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'

Acts 2:1-4

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Next Preaching Series: 'Living Before The Day That Changes Everything – A series in 1 Thessalonians, starting 31 st May. Our previous series concluded with Jesus' final words as recorded in Matthew's gospel – 'Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.' The end of the age will come and 1 Thessalonians shows us what it means to live now in the light of that future: with faith in God, love for one another, and hope that reshapes even suffering and death. This series is about ordinary Christian life lived in view of an extraordinary future.

I am reminded of Brother Lawrence, a seventeenth century Carmelite monk who became famous for finding peace and communion with God while doing the endless mundane jobs such as peeling potatoes in the monastery kitchen. I wonder how we might re-frame our everyday life by looking at everything we do, from washing up to homework and from giving a lift to closing a deal and from praying for our family members to serving on a church team and everything else in between through the lens of 1 Thessalonians 1:3. We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labour prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.
