

CHURCH FAMILY NEWS

- Tom won't be in the garden room on Tuesdays for the summer, and will be back there every term-time Tuesday 10-11am from 6/9/22.
- You're invited to a tea party at Tom's vicarage in Wick, 2.30-4.30 this afternoon, Sunday 24th July. It will be a great chance to enjoy time together and to invite people who may not usually come with us to Church. Parking is available in the Wick parade shops. The vicarage is 40 Beaconsfield Road, Wick, BN17 6LN. Directly behind Wick Hall, and round to the left and left again past St Barnabas Charity Shop.
- This weekend is also our 'patronal festival' when the church remembers Mary Magdalene. This also means that it is one year exactly until we hope to bring back the full fete - so please put Saturday 22nd July 2023 in your diary now!
- Chris Fry is holding a tombola on the East Preston Green as part of the Flower Show and car boot sale on 6th August. Chris will be raising money for the churchyard. If anyone has any unwanted presents etc for the tombola please pass these to Chris, thank you.
- Please note that I'm sorry but we won't be able to have the 8am service on 28th August. We'll be back to the usual pattern on 11th September.

24 July 2022 Meet The Risen Jesus

Welcome to St Mary Magdalene Church, Lyminster and to our church building which has been a place of worship for nearly 1,000 years. If you are visiting, or this is your first time here, please make yourself known to one of the welcomers.

Inside you will find our Bible reading for today (although we'd encourage you to bring your own Bible), the Church's prayer for this week and news of what's going on in the life of our church family.

We hope that you feel welcome and able to share in the good news of Jesus our risen Lord and Saviour. Do get in touch with the clergy if you'd like to, and please stay to get to know us better after the service.

BIBLE READINGS

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

14 For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. 15 And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

16 So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: the old has gone, the new is here!

John 20:1-2, 11-18

1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. 2 So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!'

11 Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb 12 and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

13 They asked her, 'Woman, why are you crying?' 'They have taken my Lord away,' she said, 'and I don't know where they have put him.' 14 At this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus. 15 He asked her, 'Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?' Thinking he was the gardener, she said, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.' 16 Jesus said to her, 'Mary.' She turned towards him and cried out in Aramaic, 'Rabboni!' (which means 'Teacher'). 17 Jesus said, 'Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."'

18 Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: 'I have seen the Lord!' And she told them that he had said these things to her.

POST-COMMUNION

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
